"AN"IMPORTANT WHIG VICTORY! From the Baltlmore Chronicle of Tu-sday, we files Shengard C. Lenkin, the Whig candidates 21. Whigh have been elected to the City Counells, being a umjority in each branch, and a majerity of six on joint, ballot,

The Chronicle adds, that this election was which disgraced our city two weeks ago. The money of the government was wanting, and no hired bullies appeared at the polls to prevent the aged, uphrm, or, timid, from depositing their ballots. The consequence was that the Whige have obtained a majority of nearly five hundred premacy in Bultimore. This result shows conslusively that; but for the violence which prevented a fair election on the 3d of October, Mr. Stecle would have obtained in Baltimers a sufficient majority to elect him Governor of Mary

South Canalina. The Augusta (Georgia) Chronich of Friday evening, Oct. 12, says, e vienim og a gentiemen who arrived in this city this evening, in the Greenville stage, that "Gen. WADUY THUMPSON IN TO-cletted to Congress Greenville 15. This is the best news, (adds the whore he would never see her again! It is not the first arrival of an abundant stock which is to mett and myself hid ourselves in the bushes, be exposed to view until the latter part of May but separated in making our escape. Therefore with the balance of the State Rights Ticket in enr own State.

New-Jensey. In regard to the election of members to Congress in this State, the Philadelphia National Gazette of Tuesday evening says, that nothing is yet known, nor will these be any thing positively learnt before Tuesday next. It is sufficient to say at present, that the majority of ball branches of the Legislature just chosen are Whig in their polities. _ =

A r the " Democrat" claims a great triumph in Pennsylvania, where the Locos have elected P- ter, through fraud, by from 4000 to 6000 majoilty, in a State which throws somewhere between 200,000 and 220,000 votes! In a State, toe, which gave Jackson, at his first election, about 50,000 majority, and at his second election about 20,000, and where Ritner was elected four ytara ago by a plurality only, (Wolf and Muh. kanburg cambined; receiving then 12,675 more voter thee Ritner } - The Louve are welcome to all the comfort they may take in such victories. Where will the Locos be another year, if in this " se the Whigs continue to gain for the year to to in the same proportion they have gained since Jackson's first election? Then the fories had the Blace by 50,000 majurity a enejority inbath branches of the Legislature, and nearly all the nembers of Congress.

Sines that time, they have lost their Governof the sarv . "nes of thenning two candidates; and gamed him again, with a loss of 40,000 They have lost the Senate, and perhaps the Hours also, and lost, what is worth much more than the mere election of Governor, a mejority in joint bullat, by which they would have so elected a Constanto Congress. It is for awa a victory the " Democrat"-sheets, or is it beneance its party have not been entirely annihi-Fored there?

Moreio! A cesu in Newburg, Lenn', who bid and been living with his wife for a we time, I Westly went to her residence and demanded the'r suly shild, which his wife was nursing. SURVIVORS OF THE ACNAL

We copy from the Portland Advertises the fullowing extracts from large resolved from $x & of the purpipore (Wyer and at brig Alna, of Portland. They will be read with interest ... Wyer and Cammett are both young men auf their parente reeide in Fortland.

Wyer, Cammett, and Ryan, a Pulshman, were the only persons soved; Capt. Thomas, the mate, Andrew J Plummer, and Wm. Reed, of Salem, we're killed by the Indiana...

Extract from Wyer's Letter We started from Cuba on the 19th of August. t was sometime before we got round the Asland. We kept along the Cuba coust to Mutuagas, and then took our departure for Boston. On the 5th of September if begun to blow very hard, and we found the wind thorensing, and took in sail accordingly On the 7th, it blew a complete gale from the north east. We were within fifeen or twenty miles of the Florida coast, and finding ourselves drifting asliore, we got sail upon the brig again, and carried away the head of our howspril. We had to shorten sail and heave her too again, the sea coming over and sweeping the decks. We found that we could not keep her off the land, and so concluded to run her on shore in the day time and thus save our lives: Accordingly we lowered the mainsail, and purthe helm up. The vessel was soon ashore, and we wanted till she was driven so far up-on the beach that we could easily jump from her on shore. We worked as long and as hard as we could to get our clothing and provinces ashore. Une hand, John" Sneal, was wasned overboard tefore we got ashore, and drowned.

We not ashore with our clothes and plenty of provisions and water enough to last us a month. We remained here until Sunday, the 9th, when about none we were altacked by a party of Indians. The first gun was simed at the mate, which put him, the cook, and the Dutchman to Hight. I ran into-the tent and told the captain that the Indians were upon us. The captain said the Indians would not harr us, and told us not to run. The Indians however immediately fired again, and shot me through the hand and We have, since the above was written; had a started and run store the brach; the Indiana-distinct view of the Mountains; they are well behind in tall chase. Thus I pursued my course until Wednesday utght; when I saw versets in sight I then took my shirt and raised it upon a pole, and a boat was sent-from one of the videels which those me on beard. The next morning we picked Camthree or four days, when we were put on board of another sloop, and went to Indianquay, and there we found parsage to Key West. The boat belonging to the cotter Madison' wer here sent us, and we found that Howard was tile captain. I went on board the Madison, and Capt. Howard told me he was bound first to Georgia, ourselves comfortable, and gave his surgeon and steward orders to do every thing for us. My wounds are nearly well, and I hope soon to be at-home.

Extract from Cammet's Letter.

Sunday, pleasant, went on board the brig and gut a piece of the captain's apy glass and re by the sau at 1ft n'clock, captain and myself started to the southward, went 6 or 8 miles, could see nothing, came back, got back at I o'clock, was just going to eat something, when I heard the report of a rifle and the mate say O dear! A then looked and saw tour indians and they giving their warhoop, the capiain, Wyer and myself statled. I looked round when get on the beach and ... w the raptain on his kners begging, an Indian came within the length of his rifle and shot him dead. Wyer and I then started, he with a ball through his leg. 1 got into the bushes and lost sight of Wyer; n the bushes till dark then I came out and travelled along the brach. About ien o'clock that night, I come across about therity indians, they gave chase to me. I ran into a swamp and got clear of them, travelled to the Northward four days, my lect hadly cut and awelled, no hat Croseed six of seven rivers, some of them full of sharks, and alligators. Thursday morning the wrocker Mount-Vernon took up off on board of her. Tound Wyer, he was taken off Wednesday, and told them he thought I was shead of him, and they kept in for me.
